TEHRAN - Taranom Shahinzadeh, member of Iran's women's basketball team, was killed after a deadly crash on Sunday.

She lost control of the vehicle and collided with a truck in Isfahan.

The 21-year-old rising star was a member of Naft Abadan basketball club.

Shahinzadeh represented Iran at the 2018 FIBA U18 Women's Asian Championship Division B.

Tehran Times offers its heartfelt condolence to her bereaved family.
