The 41st edition of the “Autumn in Voronet” International Film Festival takes place in the European town of Gura Humorului, Romania, between the 6th – the 10th of October, 2021.

In its third international presence, the Iranian short documentary "Gavchah" will be screened at this Romanian film festival.

The short documentary depicts one of the ancient traditions of Iranian farmers, in which a cow understands the language of its owner in a wonderful way.

The documentary is produced by Majid Zabeti, while Mehdi Marvdashti is the film's cinematographer.
