Documentarians from over 100 countries, such as Italy, Turkey, UK, Germany, US, Finland, Korea, Egypt, etc. have sent nearly 6000 titles to this year's edition of Iran International Documentary Film Festival, known as Cinema Vérité, according to the event's organizers.

Cinema Vérité is Iran's most prominent festival dedicated to documentaries, with an aim to express the relationship between reality and truth through documentary films.

The event is held in national and international competition, and includes other categories such as Portrait, Islamic Revolution Documentaries, Special Screenings, Out of Competition, as well as a film market, and workshops.

Last year, 56 documentaries from 33 countries made up the screening program of the festival, with Germany leading with 8 films in the lineup. A House for You' by Mehdi Bakhshi won the festival's Turquoise Symbol for Best Documentary.

Organized by Iran Documentary and Experimental Film Center (DEFC), and presided over by Mohammad Hamidi Moghadam, the 13th Iran International Documentary Film Festival will be held under the theme "Truth is the Best Guide" from 9th Dec. 16th Dec. 2019 in Tehran.
