

Iran students bag 3 medals at 34th Olympiad in Informatics

Written by Mehr News Agency
Monday, 15 August 2022 08:10 -

During the contest, Alireza Kaviani and Koosha Mousavi won gold, Alireza Samimi got silver, and Arya Hemmati received a diploma of honor.

The IOI is regarded as a prestigious computer science competition for secondary school and high school students around the world.

As many as 357 contestants from 90 countries took part in the contest this year.